

Cornwall Beach Shawl - July 2, 2010

Judy has designed yet another gorgeous shawl... And this pattern features two fabulous design options in one!

First, there's the Cornwall Beach Shawl, which Judy knit with a skein of Yarn Candy, Sweet Fiber's lovely Super Sweet Sock Yarn .

The second option is the New Forest Shawl, knit with two shades of Handmaiden's Casbah Sock Yarn. More photos of this design are on Judy's blog Purl Bumps . Members of Ravelry may purchase Judy's pattern online as a Ravelry download.

And, of course, we are pleased to have Judy's Cornwall Beach/New Forest Shawl pattern available for purchase at the shop.

We have also re-stocked Judy's Dover Castle Shawl pattern, and her free online pattern the Calais Shawl is available to download via her Purl Bumps blog.

Speaking of Judy's blog, while you're visiting, be sure to take a virtual journey with her as she explores the regions that have provided inspiration for all of her shawl designs. Melissa has a new Yarn Candy, Sweet Fiber website, featuring her hand-dyed yarn.

You may visit Melissa's blog to see what inspires her and to take a peek at some of the new colourways she has been busy creating.

We are very proud of Judy and Melissa and congratulate both of them on their creative endeavours. * * *We have up the Specials section of the website for July, and have added some fantastic clearance yarn for up to a whopping 50% off.

It is getting close to inventory time and we don't want to have to count it!
